Nebraska Telegraph Items.
One special advantage to readers of The Lincoln State Journal is the fact that twice as much space is devoted to telegraph items from over the state. If anything happen in Nebraska you are more likely to read about it first in The Lincoln State Journal. It costs a lot of money to pay correspondents in all the small towns, telegraph tolls, but its the right system, as is shown by The Journal having the largest circulation among state readers. The Journal aims to chronicle every death and every marriage in the state. In fact, its a daily record of the doings not only of the people out over the state, but of all the details of the state institutions, most of which are located in Lincoln. It's your state university, your agricultural school, your hospital and your penitentiary. Thousands of officers here and over the state are spending your money and The Journal will best keep you posted on what you are getting for it. Nearly all of the troubles in state affairs in the past have occurred because citizens—maybe just like yourself—have not paid much attention to what was being done. By the direct primary the humblest citizen is now just as much a part of the government as his more fortunate neighbor, and if things go wrong you yourself may be entitled to part of the blame. In these times that you want to read is a paper that dares to tell you the truth about all things and all parties. There are no strings on The Lincoln Journal.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY DISPLAY, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5. CHRISTMAS OPPORTUNITIES are many, this year, as never before have we shown such a varied assortment of beautiful Christmas remembrances.

OUR STOCK was selected with the greatest care getting only that which was novel and new in the holiday line.

Cambridge Gets Revenge. The result of the football game, Thanksgiving, between the McCook and Cambridge "highs" at the pretty burg on the Medicine, afforded the Cambridge lads an opportunity which they could not resist of evening up for their previous defeat by the locals. The score was 10 to 2 in favor of Cambridge, but they had to put in their eleven two husky fellows who were not in their game here. Sup't Taylor and several high school teachers were with the boys.

Wouldn't You Like to increase your supply of bedding? Home-made comforts filled with unequalled Izzer batts are made by us from $1.85 up to $3.00. You can select the pattern of silkolene, challie, cretonne or print, yourself, and await the making, at the same price as if selected from those on the counter. The Thompson D. G. Co. Actual cash values.

Keep You Dodging. You only manage to dodge a local canvasser or solicitor for some enterprise or other to fall bodily into the hands of a poor Armenian Christian with his wealth of benedictions. The other fellow still insists that it is more blessed to give than receive. Count your many blessings—and regard your depleted purse.

"Found" A Handsome Old Maid buying Xmas presents at The Ideal Store.

ROLL OF BOOSTERS

It may be of interest to McCook people, in fact to all who are interested in the temple-opera house enterprise, to see the roll of boosters who have subscribed the $30,000.00 already pledged for this big community project, hence, THE TRIBUNE reproduces the list in this issue. It shows how splendidly some, nay even many, have come forward with their means to help push along McCook's most impressive example of energy and push and progress. It lacks, however, many familiar names, names representing means, names of those even, whom McCook has dealt with kindly and generously in the years gone. THE TRIBUNE and the board of directors would be more than delighted to be able to place these names in the roll of boosters.

GET ON THE LIST.

Death Came Unexpectedly.

In the small hours of last Sunday morning the spirit of Little Virginia, the five year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Scott, loosed from this fragile earthly tenement, winged its flight to realms celestial;—"For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

The little one had been ailing for a few days with a throat affection, but its condition was in no wise regarded as serious until last Saturday, when medicines failed of effect and despite every effort put forth up to the last, the little life passed out.

The funeral services were held at the home, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, a deep and tender sympathy being evinced by the community in a wealth of charming floral tributes and a very numerous presence at the services, which were conducted by Rev. Edker Burton of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. M. B. Carman of the Methodist church and Rev. G. B. Hawkes of the Congregational church.

The pall bearers were Ray Jordan, Guy Hartman, Martin Lawritson and Calvin Nelms, members of the high school band of which Mr. Scott is organizer and director. The members of the band were all present in a body, as was the school board of which Mr. Scott is a member.

Miss Elsie Campbell, Mrs. F. L. Wolf, Mr. W. H. Dungan and Mr. H. C. Clapp constituted the quartette providing the music.

The remains were interred in Longview cemetery.

That the sorrowing parents have the tenderest condolence of this community in this unexpected bereavement is but formally expressing a sentiment real and heartfelt.

MANICURE NEEDS

FOR GIFT GIVING.

The persons of refinement show it by well kept hands. There are some splendid ideas for most acceptable holiday gifts in McConnell's well assorted stock of manicure goods.

Let us show you what we have in manicure scissors, powders, emery boards, orange wood stocks, manicure files, buffers, pastes, manicure sets etc., in enamels, nail bleaches and creams. We have almost everything you want. L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Confidentially Speaking.

We don't think you can do as well anywhere on bedding as at The Thompson D. G. Co.'s. They sell a wonderful fine, thick, soft, large white cotton blanket with silk binding for $2.35 a pair, and a large, heavy, all wool grey blanket for $5.00 a pair. Give your purse a fair show to do its best for you! The Thompson D. G. Co. Actual cash values.

Fatal Pneumonia.

By the death of Mrs. Shannon, Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Herman Pade has lost the second sister in less than two months with pneumonia. Both died in Fond du Lac, Wis., where Mrs. Pade has been for the past seven weeks. A brother-in-law of hers is still very ill in the same city. McCook friends are all deeply sympathetic.

Christmas Advertising.

Merchants should be prompt with their copy, next week, in order to secure good locations and correct and tasteful composition. Avoid the rush of the latter part of the week.

Just Arrived.

A new shipment of fancy suits for young men just received at Rozell & Barger's. They are dandies, too. The prices are reasonable. They fit the purse and person.

R. F. D. NO. 1.

Hubert Ploussard was out from town, this week one day. Hari Myer and wife arrived home, last Saturday, from their visit in Eastern Nebraska.

The members of the Ash Creek Telephone Co. held a meeting at the Ash Creek school house, Tuesday of this week.

Patrick Morrissey was painfully injured, Monday, by being brushed off of a wagon loaded with furniture. He came through the accident, however, in better condition than some of the furniture, which was also knocked off the wagon.

Louis Hart and Robert Leirly of Bartley have been staying with C. C. Byfield during court week.

Miss Mary Hill, who is teaching in the primary department of the Edgar school, spent Thanksgiving with her sister Mrs. O. H. Rowland.

G. H. Rowland received a Thanksgiving on Thanksgiving day of four fine opossums he found in an old cellar. He declares they made the finest roast he has had since he left Ohio several years ago.
